Products/Services

For over 30 years, Keith has been bringing people together for a common purpose and now, he and his wife, Lynne, have continued this approach since 2004 by performing Ottawa's most innovative ceremonies for:

- Weddings and Elopements,
- Baptisms and Naming Ceremonies,
- Renewal of Vows,
- Memorials and Funeral services

Keith and Lynne design and conduct over 200 original ceremonies each year which many attendees state as having been the best that they have ever attended in their lives. Using techniques derived from their theatrical backgrounds, they have pioneered a refreshing new approach to making ceremonies enjoyable and entertaining for their clients. While they perform ceremonies virtually anywhere, they are increasingly in demand for ceremonies at the Museum of Civilization, National Art Gallery, and Chateau Laurier in addition to the usual range of venues. And yes, they have even performed ceremonies for and attended by TEC members!

Professional Backgrounder

Keith is one of the founding members of Carlos Fox's (TEC 9262) Trusted Associates Group. Prior to going full time in his present mission, he was with the Conference Board of Canada organizing and facilitating high impact professional development and networking meetings for senior public service executives from the three levels of government across Canada. Previously, he was a management consultant to CEOs specializing in leveraging the benefits from operating effective Advisory Boards. As a Business Advisor at the Queen's Centre for Enterprise Development, he accessed leading-edge research from Queen's School of Business to support implementation of Advisory Board best practices. His clientele was national and included VC funds, SME firms and independent professionals. While at OCRI, he contributed significantly to its rapid expansion, profile and community repositioning. As a former federal government executive for over 10 years, Keith directed two key international programs. He has extensive background as a member of a number of Boards of Directors and Advisory Boards in both the private and non-profit sectors.

Keith holds a B.A. from Carleton University as well as an Executive MBA from Queen's University. He has completed extensive post-graduate courses from leading business faculty from Ivey, Rotman, DeGroote, and Queen's.
